A "voting member" of the Parish is a member at least eighteen years of age, who partakes of the Sacraments of Confession and Holy Communion in his home Parish at least once a year; has belonged to the Parish for a period as may be fixed by the Parish; and regularly fulfills such financial obligations as may be established by the All-American Councils, Diocesan Conferences, and Parish.

Section 2. No person shall be accepted for membership in a ~~parish~~Parish while retaining membership in a non-Christian religion, or in a non-Orthodox Christian denomination, or in an Orthodox Parish which defies the jurisdiction or the ecclesiastical authority of the ~~Diocesan Prelate—BISHOP~~Bishop, or who deliberately disregards and transgresses the moral law as may be determined by ~~the eeelesiastical tribunal—~~ the Spiritual Council.

Section 3. The religious, moral and social duties of a parishioner are to apply the tenets of the Orthodox faith to his or her life and activities; to attend the Divine Liturgy and other services of worship faithfully on Sunday and Holy Days; to keep the rules and fasts of the Orthodox tradition; to receive frequently the sacraments of Penance and Holy Communion; to train and teach the young according to the faith and spirit of Orthodoxy, to respect the clergy, the ecclesiastical authority, and all governing bodies of the Church; to be obedient in matters of faith and ecclesiastical order; and to cooperate in every way towards the welfare and prosperity of the Parish and the success of its sacred mission.

Section 4. The obligations of a ~~parish~~Parish member are to pay such regular membership dues and special assessments as the Parish General Membership Meeting may establish.

Section 5. The rights of the ~~parish~~Parish member are to attend all regular and special Parish meetings, to take part in its discussions and to vote therein, and be elected a member or officer of the Parish Board of Trustees or Council, and in such position to take part in the administration of the Parish and in the direction of its life and activity.

Section 6. In an event that a parishioner, as described in section one of this article, cannot participate as a regular ~~parish~~Parish member, such person may benefit from the Holy

PARISHES AND CHURCH COMMUNITIES

Section 1. New parishes and church communities, outside of those now comprising the Bulgarian ~~Eastern Orthodox Church, Diocese of the United States of America and Canada~~, may be established in such cities and countries as the need arises for same. Any established ~~parish~~Parish or church community of the ~~Bulgarian Eastern~~Orthodox Church not presently in the ~~Bulgarian~~ Diocese may apply to join ~~this~~the ~~Bulgarian~~ Diocese. The establishment and acceptance of such parishes and communities shall be decided by the ~~Diocesan Prelate~~Bishop, the Spiritual Council, and the Annual Conference.

Section 2. Each ~~parish~~Parish of the ~~Bulgarian~~ Diocese shall submit its ~~By-Laws~~bylaws to the ~~Diocesan Prelate~~Bishop and the Spiritual Council for approval. Any article of the local ~~By-Laws~~bylaws in conflict with this Constitution or the Statutes of the Orthodox Church in America shall be made to conform.

Section 3. ~~The parish or church community shall have absolute title to and control of all real and personal property acquired by it.~~Parish or Parish corporation is the sole owner of all Parish property, assets, and funds. In administering them, however, the parishioners and the officers elected by them must always remember the religious nature, purposes, and goals of the Parish and act as trustees of God's, not man's, property. The Parish, as the whole Church, serves God and cares for God's work in the world, and all decisions concerning Parish property must be inspired by that care and by the spiritual needs of the Church. If the Parish is abolished, its property is disposed of following the provisions of the Parish bylaws. If no such provisions exist, the property is at the disposition of the Bulgarian Diocese. In all cases, the sacred and untouchable items: the Holy Antimension, the Tabernacle, and the Sacred Vessels, must be surrendered to the Bishop.

Section 4. In the event of dissolution of the ~~parish~~Parish or church community, the real and personal property thereof, including all proprietary interests derived from rights acquired, shall devolve to the ~~Bulgarian~~Diocese.

Section 5. The ~~Bulgarian~~ Diocese shall do with the property as it deems advisable; and the property or its proceeds, if the property is sold, shall be held in trust for a period of five (5) years.

Section 6. Should the dissolved ~~parish~~Parish or church community again be restored and incorporated within the Bulgarian ~~Eastern Orthodox Church, Diocese of the United States of America and Canada~~, in accordance with this Constitution, within the five year limitation, then the ~~Bulgarian~~ Diocese shall restore the property, or the proceeds of the property, to the said ~~parish~~Parish or church community.
